Though Jerry was a mechanical wizard and a dedicated Officer, his true passion was his music. He played his guitar almost every day for over 50 years and no one who heard him play could deny his talent. When asked why he never did anything further with his talent he said, "Because I play for me and you, and anyone else in earshot of here and that's enough for me". That's just who he was.

Jerry was preceded in death by both parents, Herman and Luella, brothers Wayne Bailer and Charles Bailer, sister Delores Rawlings and his longstanding fiancée Rhonda Thornton. He is survived by his daughter, Erin Bailer-Clark; Stepchildren Christina Clark, Marc Kiriou, Tony Clark, Stacie Clark and Amanda Haslbeck, Sister Rita Fitzpatrick, Brothers Herman Bailer Jr., Tony Bailer, and Albert Bailer. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.
